

A sermon implying that the rapture is pre-trib, but mid-week

Revised and Updated to correct for typo or copy-edit errors & add explanation/clarification: Monday, 15 September 2014

(Dr. Charles Hollowell is the pastor of Victory Baptist Church in Plant City, Fla.; here, I have expounded on a sermon he once preached, and aligned all the Scriptures on the subject, to the best of my knowledge.)

“Consensus” chronology – “Parallel Passages” – e.g., “Interpreting Scripture with Scripture”

– All Scriptures are from the KJV of the Holy Bible.

ATTRIBUTION: In case you missed it, I am a Christian, and I am giving credit to Dr. Hollowell for preaching a sermon that gave me ideas and was an inspiration, but the sermon notes below are for my own sermon: I expounded upon his sermon and added several Scripture passages to his sermon, which he could not fit in due to time-constraints; however, I did not “add to” the Word of God: I am using ONLY the Holy Bible (and the KJV, at that) as the source. Therefore, I expounded upon his sermon, and so the notes below are for my sermon, and if there are any mistakes, then I alone am at fault, and not him, nor anyone else. My commentary, here, is covered by Fair Use law, for use as criticism, comment, news reporting, teaching, scholarship, and research. (My commentary is that I agree with his conclusion. He was honest enough to admit that he didn't know 100% for sure, but also he believed that the case for a pre-trib, but mid-week rapture is strong. I agree with his conclusion, here.) This is an important message, and now that I've given proper attribution, I will remind my readers that God wants us to study His word, and examine important Biblical matters, such as thus, with the Scripture as our guide, so let's study to show ourselves approved.

OK, fine, but “which” generation is Jesus referring to here? The one back in the day, or the modern-day one, which apparently will see these signs and then get raptured if they’re saved?

MATTHEW 24:34-44 (Holy Bible, KJV)

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

LUKE 17:32-36 (Holy Bible, KJV)

32 Remember Lot's wife.

33 Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

Question: Matthew 24:40-41 are parallel verses to Luke 17:34-36, which I've placed mid-week, above. However, here, they imply that maybe the rapture, if that's what it is (is it?) is at the END of the 7-year Tribulation period. (Is it?? Dr. Hollowell and friends: Your help, please??)

DANIEL – selected verses (Holy Bible, KJV)

9:24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

9:25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

9:26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

9:27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

10:14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

10:21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

11:1 Also I in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

11:2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

12:1 And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

12:2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

12:6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

12:7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

12:8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

12:9 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

12:10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

12:11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12:12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

12:13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.
