

Courage Scorecard: Federal Lawmakers:

ORIGINAL PRESS INQUIRY: Which proposed Higher Education funding solution(s) do lawmakers support? That was our original “Higher Ed” press inquiry (one “4-part” multiple choice question, below), sent out in 6 batches due to email rate limits.

UPDATE: During our news coverage of this, we discovered a startling phenomenon: Almost all GOP and Democrat lawmakers refuse to comply with key Higher Ed standards in their official party platforms, which, if left unchecked, threaten to crash the U.S. Dollar: College Debt, at almost ten (10%) percent of total U.S. Debt (divide $2t College Debt by the then $20t, or now, close to $30t U.S. debt). --Specifically:

(A) REPUBLICAN lawmakers: The Republican Party's official platform states this: “The federal government should not be in the business of originating student loans.”<sup>[[1]]</sup> However, how many GOP lawmakers are filing legislation to comply with this sensible prohibition on use of tax dollars to originate (make) student loans? Zero (unless you count S.323 and H.R.899, bills to terminate the Dept of Ed, but these bills have almost no chance of passing). Very odd.

(B) DEMOCRAT lawmakers: The Democrat Party's official platform states this: “Democrats will also empower the CFPB to take action against exploitative lenders and will work with Congress to allow student debt to be discharged during bankruptcy.”<sup>[[2]]</sup> However, how many Democrat lawmakers are filing legislation to comply with this sensible requirement to restore constitutional bankruptcy uniformity (Art.I, Sec.8, cl.4), a necessary Conservative Free Market check on excessive Education Department lending? Very few. (Democrats comply with their party platform a “little bit” more often than we Republicans do, but not much better.) Also, very odd. As a result of this new finding, my editor has directed me to open a formal investigation into this matter.

New Press Inquiry: The new press inquiry will tentatively ask lawmakers why they are not in compliance with their party platform, and then YES // NO, will they promptly file legislation to comply with their party's platform? If yes, when; if no, why not?

Further news coverage of this (including replies to both of our press inquiries, above) shall be posted in this space, below.

ORIGINAL PRESS INQUIRY (summary): “Dear Lawmakers and staff:

As we've been giving ongoing coverage of the epic fail in American Higher Education funding, we've been informed by official sources that S.2598, an historic and landmark bill, is headed for markup at light speed, and, speaking only for myself, my gut feeling says that a related bill, H.R.4907, is shortly to follow, though we have no official word. In case you haven't heard of our organisation or myself, I'm the higher ed reporter & editor in chief of The Register, Conservative online news & Nat'l Dir., CONTRACT WITH AMERICA: PART II<sup>(TM)</sup>, a nonpartisan research project patterned after Newt Gingrich's original CWA (though not affiliated), which advocates for bipartisan issues such as protecting the power/telcom "grid," cutting excess "pork" spending, and affordable college. We're working on a press inquiry to lawmakers inquiring where you stand on proposed solutions. We've found these four dominant in the political zeitgeist:

((A)) LIBERAL SOLUTION: Free College (like we do with taxpayer-funded Public Ed), and broad student loan cancellation.

((B)) STATUS QUO: College is excessively unaffordable to most; both taxpayer and student feel the crunch.

((C)) DE NOVO: New "repayment" programs or plans (such as S.2596, Sen Rubio's "LOAN ACT").

((D)) MIDDLE-GROUND COMPROMISE: S.2598, the current student loan bankruptcy bill with a modest 10-year wait period, claw-back accountability measures for "bad colleges," and a bill with twice as many GOP sponsors as Democrat, along with H.R.4907, which addresses Private Student Loans:

		Gordon Wayne Watts: On “Thu, Apr 15, 2021 at 4:48 PM,” I sent an email to Rep. C. Gordon Wayne Watts: On “Thu, Apr 15, 2021 at 4:48 PM,” I sent an email to state & federal lawmakers (and news media) – and to FLORIDA GOVERNOR, Ron DeSantis (R-FL) – regarding student debt (and 2 other unrelated, but important, issues: a breakdown in intelligence sharing among agencies, and vulnerabilities in the power / telcom grid, you know, that provides critical 911 and such). On my honour, I do call his office on occasion to politely but FIRMLY demand he use his “bully pulpit” to speak out about problems like how we are buried in student debt due to ILLEGAL price-gouging. It **is** illegal, you know?

What is a Senatorial “class?”

Answer:

The 100 U.S. Senate seats are classified into three classes of United States senators, as established by Article I, Section 3, Clause 2 of the U.S. Constitution (which says that they “shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes”), two of which (classes 1 and 2) consist of 33 seats and one (class 3) of 34 seats. The classes determine which Senate seats will be up for election in any two-year cycle, with only one class being up for election at a time. Elections for class 1 seats (such as for Sens. Rick Scott, R-FL and Dianne Feinstein, D-CA) took place in 2018, class 2 seats (such as for Sens. Jon Ossoff, D-GA and John Cornyn, R-TX) in 2020, and the elections for class 3 seats (such as for Sens. Marco Rubio, R-FL and Raphael Warnock, D-GA) will be held in 2022.

Directory of Representatives

Also referred to as a congressman or congresswoman, each representative is elected to a two-year term serving the people of a specific congressional district. The number of voting representatives in the House is fixed by law at no more than 435, proportionally representing the population of the 50 states. Currently, there are five delegates representing the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands. A resident commissioner represents Puerto Rico. Learn more about representatives at The House Explained.

A Note About Room Numbering

The three primary House office buildings—Cannon, Longworth and Rayburn—share a room numbering system for above-ground rooms that might confuse visitors at first. The system is fairly straight forward and can be used to identify most member and committee offices merely by knowing the correct room number regardless of building.

All Cannon above-ground rooms are three digits. As you would expect, the first digit indicates the floor level. For example, 303 Cannon is on the 3rd floor.

All above-ground Longworth rooms are four digits and start with the number 1. The second digit from the left indicates the floor. For example, 1309 is on the third floor of the Longworth building.

All above-ground Rayburn rooms are also four digits, but start with a 2. The second digit indicates the floor number. For example, 2125 is on the first floor of Rayburn.
