Gordon,

I received this email and the voicemail, but I didn't receive the earlier email with the link to Amazon. Unfortunately, I don't think I will have the time to pursue this topic any further. I'm getting ready to head back to Israel next Monday, where I'll be for the next three weeks. I get back just before Thanksgiving, and then we head into all the events connected with the Christmas season. I write all that to say I simply won't have time to add anything else to my already packed schedule.

I know this isn't the response you probably want to hear, but I trust you understand.

Charlie

I got your "old fashioned" email response and tried to reply, Dr. Dyer. Thank you for replying. Did you get my email with a free copy of my Amazon book attached? I ask because I've had some troubles with returned email and not sure if it made it. Also, did I provide enough study helps so that y'all can be prepared should you desire to address my "millennium" theory or the "rest of the dead" theory advocated by you and Rev. Buddy Cocheral (spelling uncertain) -- both which seem Biblically possible. (I.e., you thought I disagreed with you, but as you seem to accept 1 of my 2 theories, I think you at least partly agree. Anyhow, I'm old fashioned and don't like or trust these "web-based" email thingys... I prefer "old fashioned" email... which can allow attached documents. Did my regular email arrive safely, attached research included? Thanks, once again. If you plan on addressing this infant soteriology and baby universalist vs millenial or "rest of the dead" areas, please let me know: I'd like to listen and maybe call in. I'd like a round table discussion with all the contemporary theologians on this issue, and representative of all competing interpretations of the Scriptures on this point of theology. I hope Moody can arrange something. Thanks again for your detailed reply. Gordon Wayne Watts in Plant City FLORIDA, listening vis WKES 91.1 MHz FM.

You mean that my email with a PDF copy of my book and link to Amazon never arrived? Please check your spam folder.

Your response this Saturday was greatly appreciated, and great in absolute terms, but you missed several key points.

I'm glad that my web form and voice mail was not blocked, but I spent several hours (actually the better part of my day) composing a very detailed, point-by-point, reply to your excellent response, and actually pointing out that you did and do agree with 1 of my 2 flagship theories, and are you sure you didn't get my reply?

Even tho I trust your judgement in assessment of your busy schedule, nonetheless, I'd hate to find out my book that I emailed you never arrived: Moody, with its deep bench, should have some players in the game who can address and assess this heretofore unaddressed area of soteriology.

Dr. Dyer, I feel horrible about ((a)) the difficulties you experienced when some of my emails were blocked (probably spam filters due to attachments), ((b)) you being super busy, and ((c)) the bad blood which was unique to only Dr Rydelnik's program (and no other program in recent years), but I want to report to you that, although this cost me the better part of my "work day," nonetheless, I found a workaround: I got permission from my boss to do news coverage of my situation, and I was able to post a copy of my detailed email reply to all your good points, and you can download a copy as you are in front-page news of my eponymous and namesake blogs:

<https://GordonWatts.com/#moody> and <https://gordonWAYNEwatts.com/#moody> If you, however, want to see only my reply to you (for the sake of time: You're REAL busy, I recall!), and skip all the drama & news coverage, said copy to all cc recipients is posted https://GordonWatts.com/DrCharlieDyer/4b__Reply_ADDENDUM-CC-LINE_to-DrDyer_Sat23Oct2021.pdf or https://gordonWAYNEwatts.com/DrCharlieDyer/4b__Reply_ADDENDUM-CC-LINE_to-DrDyer_Sat23Oct2021.pdf

I will tell you privately that I'm not pleased with how Dr. Rydelnick has continued to handle himself in this debacle, and i don't believe this is representative of MOODY, but I'm fearful that a little leaven will leaven the whole lump, and that one bad apple (he's not totally bad, but VERY rude in his continued pressure to cancel culture silence me) will spoil the whole apple barrell, and hope you are not peer pressured to go along: His view is in the minority -- and I hope HE comes around. He acts like I'm asking for his head on a platter or a sacrifice of his first born or his soul or something. I'm not asking him of anything more than I ask of all programs I call -- merely a fair chance. I realise that I don't get through or get all questions answered, but he's way to the extreme of the cancel culture crowd, much to my disappointment. I tell yo uthis privately, but did not post online -- for your consumption to help your context here.

I've also archived these at hidden mirrors, Archive Today, and the Wayback Machine, plus I may blog about it. I hope this helps.

I really worked hard in my reply to you, because I wanted to honour your hard work -- said rarely is indeed posted online everywhere now.

"First, they [Nazis] came for the Jews. I was silent. I was not a Jew. Then they came for the Communists. I was silent. I was not a Communist. Then they came for the trade unionists. I was silent. I was not a trade unionist. Then they came for me. There was no one left to speak for me." (Martin Niemöller, given credit for a quotation in The Harper Religious and Inspirational Quotation Companion, ed. Margaret Pepper (New York: Harper & Row, 1989), 429 -as cited on page 44, note 17, of Religious Cleansing in the American Republic, by Keith A. Fournier, Copyright 1993, by Liberty, Life, and Family Publications.

Some versions have Mr. Niemöller saying: "Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up, because I was a Protestant"; other versions have him saying that they came for Socialists, Industrialists, schools, the press, and/or the Church; however, it's certain he DID say SOMETHING like this. Actually, they may not have come for the Jews first, as it's more likely they came for the prisoners, mentally handicapped, & other so-called "inferiors" first -as historians tell us -so they could get "practiced up"; however, they did come for them -due to the silence of their neighbors -and due in part to their own silence. So: "Speak up now or forever hold your peace!"-
