Dear Congressman C. Scott Franklin, R-FL-15:

Same query to my US Senators in the cc line, Sens. Marco Rubio & Rick Scott

– I'd like to know why you haven't cut the particular <https://ContractWithAmerica2.com/#pork> spending if you are, indeed, on record as being an anti-tax, anti-spending Conservative like me.

(Extra mirrors ... in case the "grid" goes down because my spendthrift lawmakers refuse to fund needed upgrades.)

In particular, use of my tax$ to make/back collegiate loans not only throws good money after bad (pillaging taxpayers), but also drives up "costs of college," when colleges jack up tuition to match of increased borrowing capacity.

My theory is that your failures in not supporting S.2598 and H.R.4907 (the 1st bill having twice as many GOP sponsors as Democrats) sends a message to higher ed lobbyists to continue to pressure you to defend the swamp-- and leave students and taxpayers to dry. If you agree, then support both bills. If you disagree, then justify your refusals to actually cut pork as my very, very, very expensive website here has been long asking you to do.

* <https://www.Congress.gov/bill/117th-congress/senate-bill/2598/cosponsors>

* <https://www.Congress.gov/bill/117th-congress/house-bill/4907>

Crashing the dollar because you refuse to walk your talk is no joking matter, particularly because the pork subsidies from higher ed are (and were in decades past) among the most unnecessary and largest pork graft that exist in the budget.

Tag: James Ring and Alan Collinge and Jim Sapp (WB4OBX, amateur radio operator and electronics expert like me)

Lookit here-- besides my concerns with you crashing the dollar by refusals to even attempt to cut pork, as some version of the bill in APPENDIX-A of my recent written testimony to Judiciary (a rollback of the toxic H.R.507 from the John Boehner RINO era) -- I'd love to come out of retirement and write a glowing column about how my GOP lawmakers are responsible in protection of the Grid, the Dollar, and affordable college that does so without Liberal Free Handouts... but you're making my job hard. Meet me halfway here, and get those bills filed. I'd love to write a great column about you!

CONCLUSION-- Either we, Conservatives, cut taxes and spending, and make college affordable (by #1. Subsidy pork cuts, #2. Price Controls, and #3. Bankruptcy Uniformity to force #1 and #2, such as S.2598 and H.R.4907 would do), or we "throw in the towel" and admit the Free Handout crowd are right -- and acede to their wishes. Now, which is it? Inquiring minds want to know. See attached legal memos for helps.

Get Truth.

"First, they [Nazis] came for the Jews. I was silent. I was not a Jew. Then they came for the Communists. I was silent. I was not a Communist. Then they came for the trade unionists. I was silent. I was not a trade unionist.

Then they came for me. There was no one left to speak for me." (Martin Niemöller, given credit for a quotation in

The Harper Religious and Inspirational Quotation Companion, ed. Margaret Pepper (New York: Harper & Row, 1989), 429 -as cited on page 44, note 17, of Religious Cleansing in the American Republic, by Keith A. Fomier, Copyright 1993, by Liberty, Life, and Family Publications.

Some versions have Mr. Niemöller saying: "Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up, because I was a Protestant"; other versions have him saying that they came for Socialists, Industrialists, schools, the press, and/or the Church; however, it's certain he DID say SOMETHING like this. Actually, they may not have come for the Jews first, as it's more likely they came for the prisoners, mentally handicapped, & other so-called "inferiors" first -as historians tell us -so they could get "practiced up"; however, they did come for them -due to the silence of their neighbors -and due in part to their own silence. So: "Speak up now or forever hold your peace!"-GWW
