Notice of Mailed Amicus Filing – Case No. 25-171, Inzer v Mathis: new filings in 1:25-cv-00171-MRB (SD OH)

Dear Parties and Honourable Court,

Pursuant to Local Rule, 7.1.1(a) [“Parties Required to Make Disclosure. The disclosure requirements set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 7.1 extend to entities appearing amici curiae.”], I just submitted an Amicus brief, with the required Disclosure of Corporate Affiliations and Financial Interest.

Both are attached as well as a photo verification of its service by US POSTAL MAIL.

I am aware that my service by email does not substitute for the official filing (still reliant on mail or CM/ECF), per SD Ohio’s no-email-filing policy, but I am including cc to the Clerk’s Office and Assigned Judge: Hon. Jeffery P. Hopkins, as a courtesy to give The Court the heads-up as to my request to link my Pacer Account with your court’s CM/ECF, to ensure prompt, proper, and complete service.

I, Gordon Wayne Watts, pro se amicus curiae in Case No. 25-171 (Inzer Advance Designs, Inc. v. April Mathis), mailed my brief and corporate disclosure statement on June 26, 2025, to the Southern District of Ohio Clerk’s Office (100 East Fifth Street, Cincinnati, OH 45202). This email serves as notice per my Certificate of Service, fulfilling my commitment to multi-method delivery (USPS, email, CM/ECF if possible, public posting).

I am seeking CM/ECF filing privileges and will call the Clerk’s Office (513-564-7500) today to confirm status. This notice ensures precise awareness of my filing and intent to support defendant April Mathis.

Respectfully,
Gordon Wayne Watts
